Timetables

The Cotswold Line Railbus is the easy way to access train services from the Oxfordshire Cotswolds area. Buses run to Kingham and Charlbury stations from local villages and towns, and are timed to connect with trains to and from Oxford, Reading and London to make your journey as easy as possible.

The Railbus will wait for up to five minutes if trains are running late, except for the last journey of the day on routes X8 and C1 which will wait for up to 20 minutes.

For passengers travelling to Chipping Norton, combined rail and bus tickets are available for travel between any National Rail station and Chipping Norton via route X8 or 233 from Kingham station. These tickets can be bought from rail station booking offices, rail appointed travel agents or by calling 08457 000 125. Services X8, C1 and 233 are normally operated by modern wheelchair accessible buses which make boarding and alighting as easy as possible. You can board the bus at any stop it passes by clearly signalling to the driver as the bus approaches. In villages where there are no nearby bus stops, routes X8 and C1 will operate hail & ride and stop at any safe location.

Further details about Cotswold Line Railbus services can be found at www.railbus.co.uk or by calling either RH Transport for services X8, C1 and T1 (01993 869100), or Stagecoach for service 233 (01865 772250).

Your new Cotswold Line Railbus services

From 15th December 2008, Cotswold Line Railbus services X8, X8A and C1 are changing:

- Route X8 (operated by RH Transport)
- Off peak (between about 0930 and 1630), all X8 journeys are extended beyond Kingham Station to serve Idbury, Fifield, Milton-under-Wychwood, Shipton-under-Wychwood and Ascott-under-Wychwood. This gives the Wychwoods new rail connections to Kingham station and through buses to Chipping Norton
 - In Chipping Norton all journeys now travel via Churchill Road
 - Bledington is no longer served
 - Route X8A no longer operates
- Route 233 (operated by Stagecoach)
- From 1 February 2009 a brand new Sunday service will operate on route 233. Route 233 will be extended to run beyond Milton-under-Wychwood to Kingham station and Chipping Norton on Sundays. This will give the Wychwoods and Burford rail connections via Kingham station
- Route C1 (operated by RH Transport)
- Route C1 will continue to operate peak time journeys in the morning and evening at similar times to now
 - Off-peak journeys during the day (after about 0845) will no longer operate, but are partly replaced by new service T1 (see below)
 - Some journeys are extended to serve Milton-under-Wychwood
 - Journeys in Shipton-under-Wychwood no longer use Plum Lane
 - When leaving Charlbury buses will use Park Street instead of Sheep Street
- Route T1 (operated by RH Transport)
- This is a new route for Leafeld and Ramsden passengers to travel to and from Charlbury Town Centre and Charlbury Station
 - Journeys must be pre-booked by calling RH Transport on 01993 869100 a minimum of two hours before travelling
